MEMORANDUM FOR: DIRECTOR OF CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE
ATTN: DEPUTY DIRECTOR FOR PLANS

SUBJECT: Exploitation of the International Communist Movement by the Soviet Intelligence Services (S)

25X1A

1. Reference is made to Central Intelligence Agency Memorandum, [redacted] 15 December 1954, which forwarded subject study to the Assistant Chief of Staff, G-2, Department of the Army, for information, review and comment.

2. The study was forwarded by the Assistant Chief of Staff, G-2,
Department of the Army, to the Army Intelligence Center, Fort Holabird, Baltimore, Maryland, for review and comment by Counter Intelligence Corps personnel experienced in subject title. The following reflects the comments submitted:

a. While the subject matter is an interesting and important part of the field of intelligence, the material presented does not offer any information which is not already available at the Army Intelligence Center.
The document is very basic but cannot be considered authoritative and current.

b. Further development of some of the more important subjects (the International Brigade; the work of the Communist International Representatives; and clandestine work of Communist secret groups) would greatly add to the value of the study.

c. More complete referencing and explanation in the text of some of the statements made would improve the authenticity of the study as a reference.
